

Dear NIEHS,

I am writing to urge the NIEHS to begin efforts to completely replace lethal dose testing with non-animal, in vitro testing methods.

It is shocking that animals are still considered as subjects for cruel and unnecessary experimentation. Please support the validation and implementation of viable alternatives, and eliminate all LD50 Testing.

Sincerely,
Andrea Heaton